Limit uncertainty with anatomic design and enhanced instrumentation.

Freedom Wrist
- Variable angle locking screws
- Minimal bone resection
- DRUJ-sparing
- Lower profile radial tray
- More rotational and translational freedom

Indications
The Integra Freedom Wrist is indicated for intractable pain resulting from traumatic arthritis, osteoarthritis, rheumatoid arthritis, trauma-induced osteoarthritis of the radio/carpal joint and is intended to replace functionality of the joint due to deformity or elements stated above. The Integra Freedom Wrist is intended for cement use only.

Contraindications
- Infection
- Poor bone stock
- Paralysis
For a surgical video and full list of implants and instruments, please visit integralife.com.